

A World Rare Disease Day 2016 activity

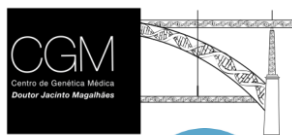

A workshop focused on Congenital Disorders of Glycosylation (CDG).

- Audience: students and all medical specialties (limited to 60 participants)
- When: 29 February 2016 (Monday)
- Local co-organiser: Dr Dulce Quelhas, Dr Esmeralda Martins, Dr Elisa Leão-Teles, Dr Esmeralda Rodrigues
- Where: Fundação Manuel António da Mota - Praça do Bom Sucesso, 74 - 90 | 4150-146 Porto
- Coffee break is offered and a participation diploma will be given
- Registrations are free of charge and you can register at <http://www.apcdg.com/education.html>
- For further information please contact: sindromeCDG@gmail.com

Coordination and support:

Institutional collaborators:

Scientific support:

centro hospitalar
do Porto

SDHM
SECÇÃO DE DOENÇAS
HEREDITÁRIAS DO
METABOLISMO

Think metabolic, think Congenital Disorders of Glycosylation (CDG)!

Program Porto, 29 February 2016 (Monday)

Hour	Title	Speaker or Moderator
13.30-13.50	Registration desk	At the door of the Amphitheater at Fundação Manuel António da Mota
14.00-14.15	The work in the field of Rare metabolic diseases done by the reference Hospitals in the North of Portugal	Local organisers and speakers: Dr Esmeralda Martins, Dr Elisa Leão-Teles
14.15-15.00	Congenital Disorders of Glycosylation (CDG): A disease cutting across all medical specialties.	Keynote speaker: Pf Jaak Jaeken (Belgium)
15.00-15.10	Q&A	All together
15.10-15.25	Highlight to immunological aspects of congenital disorders of glycosylation (CDG).	Speaker: Dr Paula Videira (Dr Paula Videira (Faculdade de Ciências e Tecnologia, Universidade Nova de Lisboa, Portugal)
15.25-15.40	CDG diagnosis: where do we stand?	Speaker: Dr Dulce Quelhas (Portugal)
15.40-15.50	Q&A	All together
15.50-16.20	Coffee-Break	All together
16.20-16.50	Clinical cases : experience from the world CDG reference center KU Leuven, Belgium	Speaker: Pf David Cassiman (Belgium), via skype
16.50-17.00	Q&A	All together
17.00-17.40	Discussion of suspicious CDG clinical cases at major reference Hospitals in the North of Portugal	Speaker: Dr Esmeralda Rodrigues, Dr Esmeralda Martins and Pf Jaak Jaeken (Belgium)
17.40-17.50	Portuguese Association for CDG: addressing the families and professionals needs	Speaker: Dr Vanessa Ferreira (Portugal)
17.50-18.00	Closing remarks. Distribution of diplomas	Local organisers & Pf Jaak Jaeken (Belgium)